In 2008, the Hopgoods decided to take Rod Tim on a round-the-world trip. They traveled to over 20 countries, including Thailand, Vietnam, Cambodia, Australia, New Zealand, and the United States. Rod Tim loved exploring new places and meeting new people. He was always the center of attention, and everyone who met him fell in love with his charming personality.

After returning from their round-the-world trip, the Hopgoods decided to settle down in the United States. Rod Tim quickly became a fixture in the community. He loved going for walks in the park, playing with other dogs, and attending local events. He was also a regular visitor to the local nursing home, where he would bring joy to the residents with his playful antics.

In 2015, Rod Tim was diagnosed with cancer. The Hopgoods were devastated, but they were determined to give him the best possible care. Rod Tim underwent surgery and chemotherapy, and he fought the disease bravely. Sadly, Rod Tim passed away in 2017, but his memory lives on.

Rod Tim Hopgood was an extraordinary dog who brought joy to everyone who met him. He was a loyal companion, a loving friend, and an inspiration to all. His story is a reminder that even the smallest of creatures can make a big difference in the world.

Here are some of Rod Tim's most memorable adventures:

- Traveling to over 20 countries with his humans
- Working as a therapy dog at a local nursing home
- Appearing on the Oprah Winfrey Show
- Being featured in a book about his life
- Inspiring others to live their lives to the fullest

Rod Tim Hopgood was a truly remarkable dog. He will be remembered for his love, his laughter, and his unwavering spirit.
