The Cat Who Ate the Moon

There once was a cat named Mittens, Who loved to chase shadows and kittens. One night, she saw the moon so bright, And thought, "That's my dinner tonight!"

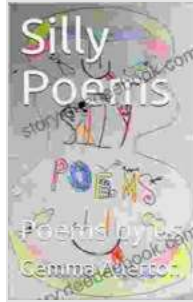

She jumped and leaped, and reached so high, Grabbing the moon with her tiny eye. Down she came, with a satisfied purr, Her belly full of the moon's soft fur.

The Cow Who Jumped Over the Fence

There once was a cow named Bess, Who loved to moo and make a mess. One day, she saw a fence so tall, And thought, "I bet I can jump it, y'all!"

She took a deep breath and gave a lunge, Flying over the fence with a honk and a lunge. The other cows watched in awe and delight, As Bess landed on the other side, all right.
