

Ted Simon: The Ultimate Motorcycle Tourist in Rome

Ted Simon is a legendary motorcycle traveler who has ridden over 400,000 miles across five continents. In his book, Jupiter's Travels, he recounts his epic journey through Rome, a city that he found to be both beautiful and chaotic.

Simon's journey began in the early 1970s, when he set off from London on a Triumph motorcycle. He rode through Europe, Asia, and Africa, before finally reaching Rome. He was immediately struck by the city's beauty, but he also found it to be a challenging place to navigate.

In his book, Simon describes Rome as a city of "contrasts." He writes about the beautiful architecture and art, but he also talks about the poverty and crime that he witnessed. He notes that Rome is a city that is both ancient and modern, and that it is a place where the past and the present coexist in a unique way.

Despite the challenges, Simon found himself drawn to Rome. He spent several weeks exploring the city, and he came to appreciate its unique character. He visited the famous landmarks, such as the Colosseum and the Vatican City, but he also ventured off the beaten path to discover the hidden gems of Rome.

One of the things that Simon loved most about Rome was the food. He writes about the delicious pasta dishes, the fresh seafood, and the rich wines. He also enjoyed the lively atmosphere of the city, and he often spent evenings in the cafes and trattorias.

In his book, Simon writes that Rome is a city that "gets under your skin." He says that it is a city that is both beautiful and chaotic, but that it is also a city that is full of life and passion. He concludes by saying that Rome is a city that he will never forget.

Ted Simon's journey through Rome is a testament to the power of travel and the allure of the Eternal City. His experiences show that Rome is a city that has something to offer everyone. Whether you are interested in history, art, food, or culture, you are sure to find something to love in Rome.

Tips for Motorcycle Tourists in Rome

If you are planning a motorcycle trip to Rome, here are a few tips to help you make the most of your experience:

- Be prepared for traffic. Rome is a busy city with a lot of traffic. Be sure to ride defensively and be aware of your surroundings.
- Park your motorcycle in a safe place. Motorcycle theft is a problem in Rome. Be sure to park your motorcycle in a well-lit area and use a lock.
- Wear a helmet. Helmets are mandatory for motorcycle riders in Italy. Be sure to wear a helmet that is DOT-approved.
- Be aware of the ZTL zones. ZTL zones are restricted areas where motorcycles are not allowed to enter. Be sure to check the signs carefully before entering a ZTL zone.
- Have fun! Rome is a beautiful city with a lot to offer. Take your time to explore the city and enjoy the experience.

Ted Simon's journey through Rome is an inspiration to all motorcycle travelers. His experiences show that Rome is a city that is both beautiful and challenging, but that it is also a city that is full of life and passion. If you are planning a motorcycle trip to Rome, be sure to follow these tips to help you make the most of your experience.
