Day 2: Walking to Sant Elm

Embark on your first walk, a scenic coastal path leading to the pristine cove of Sant Elm. Marvel at the stunning views of the Dragonera Island Nature Reserve, a haven for marine life and bird species. Admire the coastal fortifications built by the Knights of Malta, a testament to the island's rich history. Relish a picnic lunch amidst the natural splendor of the cove before returning to Andratx.

Day 3: Exploring the Serra de Tramuntana

Venture into the heart of the Serra de Tramuntana mountain range, a UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its breathtaking landscapes and hiking trails. Ascend the Puig de Galatzó, the highest peak in the western part of the range, and be rewarded with panoramic views that stretch from the Tramuntana Mountains to the Mediterranean Sea. Descend through the scenic Sóller Valley, filled with citrus groves and traditional Mallorcan villages.

Day 4: Walking to Deyá

Follow the ancient pilgrim's route to the picturesque village of Deyá, nestled amidst the Tramuntana Mountains. Amble through olive groves and admire the panoramic views of the Sóller Valley. Visit the Robert Graves Museum, dedicated to the renowned British writer who made Deyá his home. Enjoy a leisurely lunch at a local restaurant, savoring the flavors of Mallorcan cuisine.

Day 5: Exploring Valldemossa and Sóller

Discover the cultural treasures of Valldemossa, a beautiful village with a rich artistic and musical heritage. Visit the former monastery, where the renowned composer Frédéric Chopin and the writer George Sand spent a romantic winter. Continue to the vibrant town of Sóller, known for its Art Nouveau architecture and traditional markets. Take a ride on the charming Sóller Railway, a historic tram that offers breathtaking views of the Tramuntana Mountains.

Day 6: Walking to Port de Sóller

Embark on a coastal walk to the picturesque port of Sóller, passing through ancient olive groves and admiring the rugged coastline. Along the way, discover the hidden beach of Cala Deià and the fishing village of Llucalcari. Relax on the sandy shores of Port de Sóller, enjoying the Mediterranean sun and the vibrant atmosphere of the port.
